MESSAGE

The Faculty members of the Mahapurusha Srimanta Sankaradeva Viswavidyalaya (MSSV), Nagaon aspired to publish a research journal to encourage the researchers to publish their research outputs. To encourage them necessary initiatives were taken up and it was decided to publish an online biannual journal named as— MSSV Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences. An ISSN has also been obtained for the Journal.

The First Issue of the Journal is inaugurated on the 3rd Foundation of the University, i.e., on 10th June, 2016.

I congratulate all the contributors of the Journal as well as I offer my thanks to the Advisors, Editors and Members of the Editorial Board of the Journal.

I wish the journal shall be able to contribute immensely in spreading new knowledge gained by the researchers in the field of humanities and social sciences.

With best wishes to all,
